ANGELO HAMILTON GOES TO HIS DEATH

Murderer of Mrs. Hicks Calm and Quiet on Eve of Execution.

Every human effort that could have been exerted in his behalf having failed to stay the execution of the law, Angelo Hamilton, three times tried for the murder of Mrs. Sallie M. Hicks, and on six occasions granted respites by the Governor of the State, went to the death chair in the penitentiary yesterday morning.

Hamilton murdered Mrs. Hicks near Lynchburg in June a year ago. Enamored of the woman, he found her at a picnic to which he had forbidden her to go, and in a drunken rage shot and killed her. His defense was that the shooting was accidental. After having investigated the case, numerous times Governors Mann and Swanson in each instance refused to intervene, declaring the evidence was insufficient and that the story told by John Armstrong, the only living witness who agreed with Hamilton that the shooting was accidental, was unconvincing and improbable.

The final respite was granted by Governor Mann last Friday in order that Hamilton's family might visit him from North Carolina. The murderer spent the last weeks of his life in reading the Bible, and appeared reconciled to his fate. He went to the chair without a murmur and made no dying statement.

LABEL IS FILED AGAINST COFFEE

Six Bales Held Up on Complaint of District Attorney Lewis.

United States District Attorney L. Lewis yesterday filed in the United States District Court a libel against six bales of coffee shipped by W. H. Force & Company and Mitchell Brothers, of New York, to the Aragon Coffee Company, of Richmond, alleging that it is adulterated and the pure food law is being violated.

It is alleged that the coffee has been misbranded, and that each bale is an imitation of another article. The brand on the bales is "Mocha" coffee. The government chemist pronounces the coffee a mixture of Mocha and Bourbon Santos.

According to the allegation of the chemist and the district attorney, the mixture is made for the purpose of reducing and lowering an injurious effect of its quality and strength, the Bourbon Santos having been substituted in part for the Mocha coffee.

The papers are returnable before Judge Edmund Waddell, Jr., when the government will ask that the coffee be confiscated and sold under the pure food act.

NEW WHEAT ON CHANGE COMES IN SIX DAYS LATE

The first new wheat of the season was offered on change yesterday by W. D. Butler & Co., commission merchants, of this city. The sample offered represented 100 bushels of prime longberry, was dry, well cleaned and in good condition with the exception of a slight sprinkling of garlic. It was grown on the farm of S. W. Middlebrook, of Caroline county, and was sold to the Adam Grain and Provision Company, of this city, for $1.20 per bushel. This new offering is six days later than last year and the selling price 22 cents less per bushel.

TO KEEP SHARP EYE ON JACKSON WARD

Police Out There Will Tone Down Excitement Over News From Reno.

EXTRA DETAIL ON DUTY

Holiday Crowd, on Edge About Battle, Must Not Get Rowdy.

The Jeffries-Johnson fight in Reno, Nev., seems to be occupying the whole attention of the people in Richmond, and, to prevent any disorder which is likely to follow when news of the victory—if there be a victory—is flashed in, Major Werner stated yesterday that he would detail his men all over the city, and issue orders for them to pay more than ordinary attention to the crowd where news either of defeat or victory for Jack Johnson might excite the colored population to a great degree. Betting on the result of the fight is slow, and there doesn't seem to have been much money sent out on Richmond, and he placed by men working for a commission. But, notwithstanding the fact that betting is slow, there is great and acute interest, and an outburst of popular feeling may be expected in either event.

Everybody on Thine.

Said a prominent sporting man yesterday, "It will be the greatest fight the world has ever seen. The results will be flashed all over the world. Even in far Australia people will be awaiting the return of the ship which will bring the news. And we, in Richmond, are just as anxious as anybody else to learn the result of the final blow—whether it is Jeffries or Johnson who will reach the floor and count out."

The Times-Dispatch will flash the returns by rounds on a large board erected on Bank Street, and half the populace will be on hand to see them. Extra policemen will be detailed to keep the crowd in order. As July 4 is a national holiday, all the business houses and public offices will be closed, and the majority of the people will be out on the street anxiously awaiting the first news from the front. The Times-Dispatch will give the story by rounds, but the real story of the fight will be written by John L. Sullivan, once champion, and the most popular right fighter that ever lived.

The meeting will be held some time during the month of July. Charles Rueger was elected a director.

OLDEST LAWYER IN VIRGINIA DEAD

Squire Thomas Thought to Have Long Since Passed Century Mark.

HIS EXACT AGE UNCERTAIN

Man Who Defended Murderer Phillips in Henrico Passes Away in County.

George Washington Thomas, the oldest practicing lawyer in the State of Virginia, died yesterday in his home in Venable Street, in this city, after a very short illness. He was in the neighborhood of 100 years old, and was in his office attending to his work as justice of the Peace of Henrico county on Tuesday. On Wednesday he was incapacitated for work, not by any illness, but by weakness due to age, and yesterday he died.

George Washington Thomas, Jr., said last night he thought his father was 104 years old. Samuel P. Waddill, clerk of the Henrico County Court, who has known Mr. Thomas well for many years, said he thought 104 years was slightly more than Mr. Thomas had attained. His idea, however, was that he had certainly passed the century mark.

Mr. Thomas accepted his first work as an officer in Henrico county a few days before the Confederate War began, as constable. He held that position several years, during which time he studied law. He then resigned his office and took up the law.

In 1873 he was elected Commonwealth's Attorney for Henrico county, and held that office until 1885, when a change in the political situation made it necessary for him to retire. Since that time he had practiced law, and was a magistrate of the county. In the last few years he had confined his labors to the magistracy entirely on account of the infirmities of age.

Recently Danced Jig.

Until a few days before his death Squire Thomas, as he was known throughout the county, was a most unusually active man. It is remembered now that on one occasion when two newspaper men went to him for an interview on a subject which was not ready for publication, Squire Thomas executed a double shuffle in the corridor of the courthouse, saying, as he finished it, "Don't you think I am the spryest man of ninety-three of your acquaintance?"

Probably the most prominent work ever engaged in by Squire Thomas was his defense of John Jeter Phillips, of Henrico county, on the charge of murdering a colored woman. Squire Thomas was associated with Colonel J. C. Spalding in the practice of law, and the firm was engaged for the defense. Phillips was found guilty of a most brutal murder and was hanged.

After his retirement from the office of Commonwealth's Attorney, Squire Thomas was appointed a justice of the peace, which office he held until his death. During his term of office he rarely missed a day at the courthouse. The funeral arrangements had not been completed at a late hour last night, but it is more than probable that the burial will take place in Oakwood Cemetery on Sunday.

CAUGHT STEALING

W. B. Glover Administers Good Lesson to Young Miscreants.

Caught in the act of stealing growing fruit from the yard of William B. Glover, 203 South Third Street, a negro boy and girl were nearly scared out of their wits yesterday afternoon when Mr. Glover called the police and threatened to have them arrested and locked up.

The two children were caught stealing figs and Mr. Glover notified the Second Police Station. The patrol wagon, with three officers, went to the house and confronted the young miscreants. On account of their tender years Mr. Glover would not swear out a warrant for their arrest, preferring to let them go. But they got a good lesson, and it is probable that they will not soon forget it.

POLICE SEEKING ONE SANE FOURTH

Dealers Caught Selling Big Cannon Cracker to Be Put Under Arrest.

RIGID LAW ENFORCEMENT

Extra Detail by Major Werner to Protect Life and Property.

Following the principles of the national movement for a "sane Fourth" the police of Richmond will attempt next Monday to prevent all accidents the possibility of which may come under their supervision. The force will be doubled during the day and night, and the members of the bicycle squad will call into headquarters from the patrol boxes every half hour, while additional patrol men will be stationed on the main thoroughfares and in the lower sections of the city, where disorderly conduct upon a too bibulous celebration is more possible.

Pursuant to a city ordinance, firecrackers beyond No. 5 size will be tabooed, and dealers caught selling them to children or to anyone else, for that matter, will be arrested. It is rather a curious fact that, under city regulations there are only three days in the year upon which firecrackers may be used—October 19, which commemorates the surrender of Lord Cornwallis, commanding the British troops at Yorktown, to George Washington and Lafayette, which saw the close of the Revolutionary War and the achievement of independence by the American colonies; February 22, the date of George Washington's birthday, and July 4, Independence Day.

Only Three Crackers Days.

Few people know that the date of Lord Cornwallis's surrender is officially recognized for public celebration. Yet it is so marked in the city ordinance, and has been so for many years. Upon these three dates only may the children of Richmond enjoy themselves, as noisily and with as much demonstration as they wish.

But as there has been a national effort to make the celebration on July 4 sane and quiet, and to prevent the accidents which annually exact a toll of young lives, all possible and legal preventives will be used by the police. The city ambulance will be prepared to answer the extra calls for help which may be expected and to render all necessary aid.

In speaking of the matter yesterday, Major Werner said that he would place extra men on duty, and that he hoped there would be no serious accidents. He was especially serious in saying that firecrackers above the size allowed under the law would not be permitted. Let the children celebrate all they want, he said, "but we don't want to lose any of them."

WARRINER DISMISSED

Heath to Be Tried in Warwick County for Alleged Inlet to Mrs. Warriner.

Justice Crutchfield yesterday morning dismissed the case against W. Heath, charged with insulting the wife of Policeman Warriner Wednesday on an excursion train, but the man was immediately rearrested by Special Officer M. Angle, of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, who will take Heath to Warwick county, in which the alleged offense was committed, for trial.

The charge against Warriner and Heath of fighting was dismissed, the judge holding the offense for a man to defend his wife's good name.

Cemetery Matters.

All the City Cemetery keepers were re-elected last night at the meeting of the Council Committee on Cemetery Affairs. It was decided that a subcommittee should be appointed to look into the advisability of putting Shockoe Cemetery under the supervision of some other cemetery keeper. Messrs. Powers, Watkins and Richards, were named as this subcommittee. The election of the two laborers in Shockoe Cemetery was suspended. The conditions in this cemetery and the work being done there will be looked into.

SALE OF STAMPS SHOWS BIG GAIN

Richmond Increase for Fiscal Year Ending June 30 Amounted to $51,609.

That Richmond is growing rapidly is certain by the comparative statement of stamp sales prepared by Assistant Postmaster Fuller. Stamp sales for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1910, amount to $637,000, an increase of $51,609 over the previous year, sales for the fiscal year of 1909 being $585,391.

For the past five years the business of the local post-office has been steadily on the rise. In 1906 stamp sales were $463,292; in 1907, $515,696; the year 1908 shows sales of $510,435; the sales for 1909 were $558,591, while the year 1910 shows an increase of more than $50,000, or $637,000.

While the business of the office has grown by leaps and bounds during the past few years, the increase in the force has not been as rapid. There are at present 115 clerks and 81 carriers. These employees handle the large business of the Richmond office efficiently, however.

The figures enumerated above are for stamp sales, postal cards, stamped envelopes and for newspapers mailed in bulk. These figures do not include revenue derived from registered mail and money orders issued.

Postmaster Allan said yesterday that the furlough period is now commencing, and will continue until the latter part of November. Each clerk and carrier is entitled to fifteen days' leave of absence (exclusive of Sundays and holidays), with pay. In order that all carriers may get their furloughs before the Christmas rush starts, and while the mail is lightest, eleven carriers have to be absent at one time.

To take care of these furloughs the men double up and practically eliminate eleven routes. The postmaster said it may be a little later than usual he hoped the public would be patient for the post-office people are doing their level best to take care of a "right tough proposition."

MR. MILES WANTS BIG LIGHT MOVED

Glare on Porch a Nuisance, so It Must Be Changed, Says Committee.

The Council Committee on Light, at a meeting last night, ordered the extension of a six-inch gas main from Strawberry to Sycamore Street, at a cost of about $1,500. The city will receive about $150 per year revenue.

Some discussion was indulged in by various members regarding such a big outlay for the purpose of accommodating a few householders. Superintendent Knowles said that while he had no doubt the revenue would be more, he could not make the positive statement. Councilman John J. Mitchell said people in that section were clamoring for gas mains, and he knew the city would derive much more than $150 a year.

On motion of Councilman Ratcliffe a light which stands in front of W. H. Miles's residence, at 815 West Franklin Street, was ordered moved further up the street. Mr. Miles complains that the light is a nuisance to his family because it throws a glare on his front porch.

The bill of $50 submitted by Edwin N. Ezekiel for analyzing water taken from the James River was ordered paid. Mr. Ezekiel is employed by the city as chemist at the settling basin, but he said the experiments were made during his own time and he was of the opinion the city should pay him extra. The experiments were made as a result of an investigation regarding gas or tar which was supposed to have flowed from the City Gas Works.

HELD AS RUNAWAYS

Claude Armstrong and Minor Sylvester Under Arrest.

Claude Armstrong, a boy of sixteen, who hales from Florida, and Minor Sylvester, of the same age, who hales from Rhode Island, were arrested last night on the general charge of being runaways. They were taken to the First Police Station, whence Sergeant Jeter had them taken to the Associated Charities.

Both boys were neatly dressed and appeared to have come of good parentage. They did not have much to say of their travels, but seemed glad to get good shelter and food. Their parents will be notified by the police authorities, and they will be held until the former are heard from.
